WE NOMINATE

Wilbur Heskett York, Chairman of Princeton University's Department of Health and one of this community's most willing "extra-curricular workers," who this week—with the arrival of the advance guard of the Princeton Class of 1958—enters upon his eighteenth year as director of a health-maintenance program which has few peers in these United States. Year after year, as medical science has pushed back the frontiers of knowledge, the 59-year old York has sought to consolidate medicine's gains, has succeeded in preventing or minimizing illness within a "community" of some 5,000 persons and has even made thousands of undergraduates believe that it is wise to consult a physician.

Acting medical director and an eminently popular lecturer in mental hygiene at Cornell University when he was called here in 1936 to succeed Dr. Joseph Edward Raycroft, York has the broadest possible conception of the word "health." His annual reports are necessarily larded with statistics, such as 3,507 chest surveys in the fall, a total of 19,714 dispensary treatments during the academic year, more than 8,300 laboratory analyses in a nine-month period, 1,042 infirmary patients, 416 sprains, 401 contusions and 2,038 inoculations. However, he is equally concerned with the individual's mental and emotional problems and is responsible for his Department's continuing studies of the wear-and-tear of every-day living, a factor of unprecedented importance in the atomic present.

York, a long-time officer of the Princeton Tuberculosis League, a trustee of the Y.M.C.A. and vice-president of Dorothea's House, is active in both the Mercer County and New Jersey Medical Societies. He is also a trustee of Princeton Hospital and is currently serving as head of the Hospital's Joint Conference Committee, composed of trustees, medical staff members and the Hospital Administrator. Throughout the year, in order to "keep his hand in," he commutes weekly to Newark's St. Michael's Hospital and there works in that institution's rheumatic fever clinic and does his stint of "house calls." His other community interests have included the Boy Scouts in this area as well as the Princeton Community Chest.

A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., and an alumnus of Virginia's Randolph-Macon College, where he combined baseball, tennis, football and basketball, York started out in a secondary school, teaching chemistry and coaching football and baseball. Graduate work at the University of Virginia was followed by four years at Emory University, Georgia, as an associate professor of physiological chemistry and also as treasurer and faculty adviser of the athletic association. His interest in chemistry rapidly developed into a passion for medicine that led to Johns Hopkins University and to a medical degree in 1924. York, the son of a Baltimore clergyman, interned in Chattanooga and Baltimore and joined the Cornell Faculty in 1926.

For his deep interest in all phases of Princeton-Community life; for his contributions in the fields of clinical and preventive medicine; for his unusual understanding of the "young men of today" who will be among the "leaders of tomorrow;" he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee for School Bond Issue. Borough voters will learn following a special meeting of the Board of Education next Monday when they will be asked to go to the polls to approve or reject the proposed $1,770,000 bond issue for the expansion of Princeton High School.

The board voted at its regular August meeting to delay announcement of the date of the special election until the additional session could be called.

Vital Problem. "Additional facilities must be available by September, 1955, or drastic and undesirable changes will have to be made, not only in the school program but likewise in the over-all guiding principles which have made Princeton High School what it is today."

That was the somber note sounded by B. Woodhull Davis, Superintendent of Borough Schools, in his 25th annual report to the Board of Education which otherwise chronicled an encouraging record of achievement in the school system.

Mr. Davis told the Board Members in plain terms that the school administration faces a "most serious problem in the high school this fall." He reported:

"Every classroom, laboratory, store room and office large enough for the purpose has been scheduled for every period of an eight-period day. However, this is only part of the difficulty. The terrific congestion in inadequate study halls, the cafeteria, gymnasium and other special facilities will be intolerable."

Mr. Davis pointed out that even with a sharp increase of 59 pupils in the elementary schools in 1953-54 and an anticipated more gradual increase likely for the next two or three years, the Borough has ample elementary school space for the "forecastable future."

The high school showed an increase of 25 students over the previous year, but it will start "rapid growth beginning next year." The high school enrollment is expected to climb by nearly 40 students in the academic year about to start.

Enrollment in Borough schools for 1953-54 totaled 1,042 in the high school and 990 in the elementary schools.

"Successful Year." On the credit side, the nine-page report pointed to a successful year despite many problems. Among the outstanding features cited:

- The first grade experimental reading group has proved by test a notable success. The class has in two years developed so soundly that it equalled the control group in word and paragraph meaning and was superior to the other groups in paragraph meaning.
- A second year of service by the school system's psychologist has led to the acceptance of the program as a normal part of the advisory set-up. Cases dealt with

School Accident Insurance

All students enrolled in the Borough School System may obtain accident insurance under a group program this fall. The comparatively novel policy among public schools was approved by the Board of Education at its Monday meeting.

Students may obtain $10 deductible policies, providing medical benefits up to $1,500 and "covering" the individual student on his way to and from school as well as during school hours, at a cost of $1.00 per school year.

The Board also voted to pay an extra $10 annual premium on policies for students playing high school football, providing that the athlete has paid his $1 for the basic coverage.

What Is "Reasonable" Saving?

People answer that question in various ways: "Save what you can spare" . . . "Ten per cent of your earnings" . . . "Twenty per cent" . . . and so on.

OUR answer is: Start with ANY amount, then gradually raise or lower it until it fits in between today's budget and tomorrow's ambitions.

The real saving secret is PERSISTENCE.

have nearly doubled, services have been expanded and the development has been cordially received by parents, teachers and students.

● French will be introduced in the third grade this year and plans are under way to integrate all foreign-language study from grade three through twelve. The forward-looking development stems from the success in 1953-54 in teaching French in grade five—an innovation made possible by the willingness of certain teachers to assume extra assignments.

● Despite instances of prolonged illness on the part of the teaching staff, the health of the student body has been abnormally high and attendance very good.

● Students rank well above established national norms. College board results continue high and the percentage of Princeton High graduates entering colleges continues to increase each year. Forty-eight per cent of last June's graduating class will enter colleges of their choice this month.

Financial Picture. Receipts for 1953-54 were $11,541 above the budget estimate of $778,959, enabling the school system to operate on the plus side. Expenditures ran $8,201 over the budget, and were chiefly attributable to the hiring of an additional elementary teacher and exceptional need for substitutes because of illness on the part of staff members.

Mr. Davis cited as a "real achievement" in management the profit of $61.41 turned in by the school cafeteria and noted that the Board of Education's cash balance, including cash due, was $60,082 as of July 1.

The financial report showed that the Township was the highest tuition-payer among the sending districts, with 227 students enrolled in the High School and a total tuition charge of $80,662. A year ago the Township sent 206 pupils.

In Conclusion. Mr. Davis told the Board that he expects the upcoming academic year will be "the most difficult to date." He thanked the members for their long efforts in preparing the proposal for expansion of the high school which is soon to go before the voters.

Citing Walter Lippman's comment that as a nation we have faced our needs in the case of war, but have never really come to grips with our needs in the field of public education, Mr. Davis concluded:

"Our future as a democracy is so dependent upon a satisfactory solution of the vast problems now before the public schools, that we cannot as a people delay facing them much longer. It will take a sympathetic attitude upon the part of all concerned to find the correct answers and do the things which must be done."

Conflicting Statements. A number of Princetonians were startled this week when they received in the mails a machine-addressed envelope with "P.O. Box 1201, Newark 2, N. J.," stamped on the back-flap. The envelope contained what the State Executive Committee of the Communist Party of New Jersey terms a copy of the draft program of the Communist Party entitled "The American Way" and a cartoonized protest against hearings planned in New Jersey by Congressman Harold Velde.

Some 48 hours later the "protest mailing", that apparently reached any number of flabbergasted New Jerseyites, was effectively nullified by Congress-

It's New to Us

The Scandinavian Touch is light, sure and strong in a new group of chairs at Nassau Interiors, 162 Nassau. These chairs come from Denmark, in walnut or natural birch frames with foam rubber cushions at seat and back. These cushions rest on a webbing that's made of wide rubber bands, instead of the usual canvas or webbing fabric. This gives additional bounce and comfort to the whole chair.

From the back, the chairs display a row of spindles that sustains the back cushion. Arms are rather narrow, and gently carved to hold a resting elbow.

Domestic side chairs resemble these Danish ones and serve to demonstrate what devotees of modern furniture know so well—that Scandinavian influence produces some of the best modern designs. These chairs are straighter than their Danish friends. Like them, they have square foam rubber seats and back cushions. The covering is a wide basket-weave in fern green or natural. (The Danish chairs are tweedy in grey or tan.)

The wood in the domestic chairs is Appalachian white ash or mahogany.

Climbing to the second-floor display rooms, we found a set of new modern pieces called "Quaker Modern", for some obscure reason. We saw a five-drawer bedroom chest for $99, and a six-drawer double chest for the same price. The wood here is rock maple, the finish is a shade called Tobacco. On these chests the only accents are the drawer pulls, which are made of a curving piece of metal wrapped with peel.

Dining-room furniture consists of a drop-leaf table and matching chairs that are designed with four-spindle backs. A desk-vanity that could go into any room, has two drawers. One is a deep file drawer on the lower right, the other is a shallow "pencil drawer" on the upper left—just for balance.

Downstairs again, we found a plain blond card-table with simulated leather top in wine or green. Quite plain, for $12.50. Over it, you could use a black pin-up lamp in country-style with filigree work in the metal, flounces on the shade and a handle to turn down the light—in case somebody thinks it really is a kerosene lamp.

Flower-arrangers who like to use candles will welcome a serpentine aluminum taper-holder that can be bent in any direction to set off the flowers you insert in its curves. The holders hold only tapers—not candles, and you may buy these at $1.50 for 24.

High and Low. Any wallet will feel at home in The Joan Shop, 63 Palmer Square West. The back-to-scholars can spend their allowances on transitional cottons at $14.95; others can spend $49.95 several times over.

Our favorite is a top-bracket one: a knit suit in navy, cut and fashioned to become almost any figure—and that's really news in a knit suit. (It's a dress, actually, but there's a brief jacket.)

The knit is a modified popcorn stitch. The cut is simple, with a wide scoop neck and very short raglan sleeves. The waist is gathered in with several rows of elastic stitching for that good fit we were talking about. There's a short jacket with sleeves a bit longer than the dress sleeves, and a row of buttons that stops at a round collar. The price is $4.95.

Cottons for fall and winter are mostly stripes. We liked a narrow multicolor with a black background, a tie at the neckline and gathered skirt. The yellow stripe man Velde, who announced that House Un-American Activities Committee has indefinitely postponed the hearings which had been scheduled for Newark late next month.

Congressman Velde said that the postponement was ordered because of his committee's policy to hold no public hearings within six weeks of a general election.

The "Communist Manifesto" also did not mention the newly passed law that outlaws the Communist Party.

Annual Appeal. The First Aid Unit, which provides the community with volunteer ambulance and first aid service night and day around the year, will open its annual appeal for financial support on September 15.

The campaign for funds to support the unit will be conducted by a committee headed once again by Lennard F. Kraus. Other members are Edward T. Swinnerton, John F. Golden, Raymond E. Rodweller and Leo J. McCloskey.

The unit's annual audit has been submitted and shows that $5,059 was paid out in expenditures during the year completed July 31. Over $9,800 was received in contributions to last year's appeal.

The major part of the unit's cash balance will be absorbed by payment for a new 1954 Cadillac ambulance which will shortly replace a 1948 vehicle. The new ambulance will cost approximately $10,000.

Township Politics. Although the political pot continues to simmer in Princeton Township, which with the expiration of the "Census Freeze" will elect three rather than one Committeeman next November, both the County Republican and Democratic County Committees have indicated that any announcements pertaining to the additional nominees will be withheld until after the Labor Day Weekend.

At presstime Mayor Albert Salzman said that he had not yet decided whether or not to declare himself a Republican candidate for election to the expanded governing committee. There were also no indications, or rumors, that any Township resident was contemplating "running" on a petition basis.

"Operation Surveillance." Princeton's "round-the-clock unit of the Ground Observer Corps will participate this Saturday in a statewide test of New Jersey's Air Warning System. During the test the New Jersey Wing of the Civil Air Patrol will fly predetermined flight courses which will be routed over every one of the 120 observation posts in the State.

Each flight will consist of three to five aircraft in formation and will be time-scheduled to allow comparison with "Aircraft Flash" —the time the report is made by ground posts to the Air Filter Centers—upon the conclusion of the exercises.

"Operation Surveillance," the details of which were announced by Thomas S. Dignan, of Princeton, Deputy State Director of the New Jersey Division of Civil Defense and Disaster Control, is tentatively scheduled between the hours of 1:00-5:00 p.m. Posts in the central and southern sections of the State will be alerted through the Trenton Air Defense Filter Center.

Colonel John H. Dilley, the courageous infantry colonel in command of this country's installations in Frankfurt, Germany, who was shocked by the appearance of American womenfolk in public and declared taboo bare-back, halter-type sunsuits, bare midriff costumes and shorts, has won an enthusiastic—if small—following here in Princeton.

Citation to Davis

The Borough Board of Education presented a red leather-bound citation signed by the members of the board to B. Woodhull Davis on the occasion of accepting his 25th annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

The text of the Board's citation:

"There is in B. Woodhull Davis an admirable sense of public service. He has demonstrated throughout his twenty-five fruitful years in Princeton that his gifts of leadership belong to the public interest. His concern with community welfare and his outstnding accomplishments are reflected not only in our schools, but in the church, clubs, and other civic organizations in which he has had a part.

"Public education in the Princeton area is richer for his presence amongst us. Boys and girls by countless hundreds have been the beneficiaries of his rare talents and the warmth of his spirit. The schools of today reflect his abilities, his wisdom, and his vision over the years. Through the great achievements of his administration, the Princeton education system has become known and honored throughout the state and in the nation.

"In tribute to his outstanding devotion and loyalty, the Board of Education of the Borough of Princeton proudly dedicates a page in the minutes of this meeting, and gives public expression of our harmonious association with him; of our genuine affection for him: and of our high esteem of his many fine qualities which have endowed these years with dignity and distinction."

Rocket Riders. Younger Princetonians, as well as their mothers and fathers, will be deeply interested in the September 9th opening of Bamberger's store in the Princeton Shopping Center, for two of television's most popular heroes, Captain Video and Ranger, will make a personal appearance, arriving aboard a rocket ship that will be on exhibition outside of the store at 11:00 a.m. opening day.

Bamberger officials have announced a contest to select an honor guard of 12 boys and girls who will ride with Captain Video and Ranger on the rocket ship from the secret landing field to the Shopping Center. The contest is open to all youngsters between the ages of six and 12 who have their parents' consent to travel by rocket.

The honor guard will be composed of the writers of the 12 best letters telling in 50 words or less why they wish to welcome Captain Video to Bamberger's. Entries must be received by September 21 at Captain Video's advance base (c/o Bamberger's, Newark 1, N. J.) Each entry must include the sender's name, telephone number, age and parents' approval to accompany Captain Video.

Target Shoot Held. Robert Buchanan fired a perfect 30 to win the annual Fire Department Target Shoot, sponsored last week by Hook and Ladder and Chemical Engine Company No. 1.

Mr. Buchanan succeeded Wilbur F. Kerr Jr., who placed 23rd this year. Hook and Ladder captured the new inter-company trophy put into competition this year by John F. Hoff Jr., president of Hoff Gas and Fuel. Local merchants put up 87 prizes for the place-winners in the shoot.

The competition was judged by Norman Fowler, James Keels, Harry L. Stout and Clifford Quick, with Mr. Stout the winner in the four-way judges' shoot.

George Rollings Jr. and Vincent N. Sassman served as co-chairmen of the committee in charge of the annual outing.

The first 50 place-winners in order were:

Robert J. Anderson, Vincent Sassman, Earl Stratten, John Donaldson, Richard L. Anderson

Obituaries

Mrs. Cornelia Warren, 52 Aiken Avenue, died August 23 in Princeton Hospital after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Warren, 96 years old and a lifelong resident of Princeton, had long been active in the Princeton Methodist Church. The widow of Edward G. Warren, she is survived by three sons, William J. and Harry B., both of Princeton, and Frank L., of Pennington; a brother, D. Mershon Green; a sister, Mrs. Jennie Wortley; 13 grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren. The funeral service was scheduled for the Mather Funeral Home on August 26 at 2:30, with interment following in Princeton Cemetery.

Mrs. Jessie Harwood Bushnell, widow of John L. Bushnell, died August 18 in West Trenton. A resident of Princeton for 20 years, Mrs. Bushnell made her home at the Peacock Inn. She is survived by a son, Asa S. Bushnell of Princeton; a daughter, three brothers and a sister. Services and interment were in Springfield, Ohio.

William Teague Jr., 47, of the Princeton Pike died August 15 in Mercer Hospital. Mr. Teague operated a trucking business in Princeton for many years. He was president of the Witherspoon Social Club and a member of many other Princeton organizations.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Amy Hooker Teague; his mother; a son, William Teague III; three brothers, including Andrew Teague of Princeton; three sisters, including Mrs. Florrie Herron of Princeton, and several nieces and nephews.

"Mulish Obstinacy." Alan W. Richards, Princeton's peripatetic photographer, and a native of England, has decided that Old England itself, and not the British Empire, has entered upon its period of "Decline and Fall."

Commissioned some months ago by Camera Press Ltd., London, to do a piece on American education, Richards finished his assignment, featuring Diane Chase, 74 North Stanworth Drive, a freshman-to-be at Sweetbriar College, and late in the spring mailed one package containing some 240 photos to London.

This week from London came the unhappy news that "the Customs here have dealt with your shipment of contacts with mulish obstinacy. . . . The pictures are on the way back to you because we were unable to comply with the Custom Officer's demand that we should produce an Import Licence for them; the Board of Trade just refuses to issue such licence."

"Please do not be discouraged," the dispatch stated, "but return the pictures to us in small parcels weighing not more than eight ounces each. In this form, and especially if on the outside the envelopes are marked "Press Material', they will come through without let or hinderance."

Richards still awaits the arrival of his original package—so that he can start wrapping some 40 individual parcels, no one of which will weigh more than eight ounces.

Legionnaires Plan Trip. Princeton's 350-member Post No. 76 of the American Legion will have a number of representatives at the Legion's National Convention scheduled to open Monday in Washington and continue through Thursday.

DO IT YOURSELF! IS ALL RIGHT!

IF YOU REALIZE ITS LIMITATIONS

IT'S ALL RIGHT TO "DO IT YOURSELF," BUT CERTAINLY WHEN IT COMES TO PLUMBING OR HEATING . . . "DO IT YOURSELF" COULD MEAN DISASTER!

If You Want a Job Done RIGHT
LET A SPECIALIST DO IT

Make-shift plumbing repairs don't make sense . . . may cost you dollars! When something goes wrong, go to a licensed plumber to have it made right . . . to STAY right. It just doesn't pay to "fool around" with plumbing. "Little" troubles can quickly become big expenses when improperly "fixed." Remember: plumbing is a matter of sanitation. And sanitation is a matter of health. Protect your family's health and your pocketbook by having that plumbing job done right the FIRST time . . . by a PLUMBER!

For anything from a minor repair to a major installation, call an experienced contractor, for expert workmanship, prompt service, fair prices.

Call Your Plumber

DON'T TAKE CHANCES!

Be Safe—Don't Be Sorry!

This photo graphically illustrates what happens with faulty installation. Don't be a "Mr. Fix-It" when it comes to plumbing or heating. Call your plumbing or heating contractor.

has been treated to look like gold thread. It's $14.95. For the same price, there are two greys, one a light with still lighter stripes, a simple shirt-waist design and short sleeves. The other is darker in hue and somewhat more dramatic.

Even a dress-up dress for $14.95 —it's a steel blue that looks like a jacquard print, with navy velvet ribbon weaving through the beading at the neckline.

Suits at The Joan Shop are unusual, one way or another. One is a warm blue that you don't see very often in fall clothes. With straight skirt and cardigan jacket. It's $45. A green and navy plaid has a navy line outlined with fuzzy yarn. A handsome suit for mature figures, with its quiet double-breasted cut. This one is $59.

Then, there's a two-piecer with straight skirt featuring two vertical tucks, a lined jacket with detachable wool jersey collar, and only $19.95 for the whole thing. Oxford grey or a heathery navy.

Jumpers go around the clock in this shop. We saw a good useful one in faithful Oxford grey, a princess with plain scoop neck. Then we saw one in black dacron, with a skirt pleated like a fan and just as flirtatious.

While you're still in a party mood, look at the new orlon cardigans, their small round collars heavy with pearls, beads and glitter, generally. In pastels, for $10.95 and $12.95.

Collectors of cashmere will welcome the news that The Joan Shop has them now in white, as well as blue and an unusual charcoal. Their price is $25.

Bare Knees . . . show above the new knee-length socks at The Betty Wright Shop, 144 Nassau. They are new, not in length, but in yarn: cotton instead of wool. They are knit in a cable stitch, on small needles. Come in red, jungle green, natural, grey heather and beige heather for 79c a pair.

More sophisticated occasions demand a nude stocking that shows neither seam nor toe. For really bare-foot sandals these nylons are $1.65.

This shop likes hats, as you know, and the ones on the mannequins this fall are rich in color, simple in form. Best colors are an orange that looks like bright red, shocking pink and "Fiesta" (like good red wine). Most hats seem to be flat, but there is a cliche that looks like a ball cut in half. It snugs your head with its coils of grey ribbon.

You might match a hat with one of the velvet flowers. Buy a grey rose, or a blue one, or a yellow peony. Prices are 59c and $1.

Your ensemble will be complete with a tote bag made of plastic for $2.98 plus tax. It has a center zipper section with deep pockets on each side. The plastic is charcoal or red.

In the lingerie department we found a quilted rayon housecoat with rosebud embroidery outlining a mandarin collar. A lighter housecoat in rayon, is a wrap-around design in navy, blue or coral for $5.98.

Add to your petticoat wardrobe with a black nylon taffeta, done in tiers with embroidered rosebuds from here to there. It's quite an underpinning. A trio of net underskirts are made of blue, pink and chartreuse. This you must see for yourself.

Parasite Lost. Dogs that have been playing host to ticks, fleas and various other unwanted visitors may rid themselves of these by visiting Howard's Canine Beauty Shop at 164 Witherspoon.

This new shop is run by Gordon Howard Hunt who spent seven years learning his business with the Lawrence Hospital for Animals under Drs. Edmunds and Smith.

He is equipped to clip, pluck, de-flea, de-tick, shampoo and beautify, generally. Take your prize poodle in for a complete do: clip, bath and dip for about $8. Your longhair—whether he is cocker, springer, airedale, Scottie, Kerry Blue or Schnauzer, can be done for about $3. The price for small dogs depends on condition.

This service should be particularly welcome to the owners of sporting and hunting dogs. When your dog comes in full of ticks, burrs and mud, you pick him up by the tail, carry him gingerly to Witherspoon Street, and let the Shop do the rest.

Got a cat? The Shop will de-flea them, too.

Hours at the Shop are 8-4:30, Mondays through Fridays, 8-12 Saturdays. But you may phone for a special appointment if there is a tick emergency. Phone is 1532.

"It Is Colder!"

In case you have been wondering why some swimmers have been complaining about the temperature of oceanside water this summer, it's because the temperatures of the water along New Jersey's beaches have averaged five or six degrees colder in 1954 than in recent seasons.

Why is it so cold? No one seems to have an authoritative answer, but there are any number of theories in circulation, including the prevalence of westerly winds, the absence of the steady south breezes of yesteryear and the inexplicable influences of moon and stars on the Atlantic Ocean.

Whatever the reason, these parts of the ocean most used by New Jerseyites have been inducing shivers with gauge-recordings of 62 degrees, compared with the 1953 August average of 69-70 and the 1952 average of 71.4.

carry New Jersey's colors at the memorial service in Arlington Cemetery. The service will be attended by President Eisenhower, Senators and Congressmen. Mr. Richards is an alternate delegate from Mercer County.

The local post's "auto club" will make the trip in its 1923 Dodge touring car. Members of the club include Marino Ferrara, William Birch, Mr. Robertiello, Andrew O'Hara, Thomas Lynch and Thomas Mulvey.

Others planning to make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Drake, George Cahill, Norman Fowler, Alfonse Robertiello, Rodney Richards and A. B. Danagher. Mr. Drake was recently renamed finance officer of the Mercer County Legion organization.

The Week's Births. Princeton Hospital has recorded the birth of twin daughters to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rightmire of 81 Model Avenue, Hopewell. During the week 11 boys and eight girls were born, ending three weeks of numerical superiority for the female sex.

Parents of sons include Mr. and Mrs. William Dippel, 219-B Marshall Street; Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan, Province Line Road; Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Stevens, Fort Lee; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tindall, Dutch Neck; Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, 161 Harrison Street; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rambo, 13 Witherspoon Street; Mr. and Mrs. George Briggs, R.D. No. 3, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gumina, Mt. Lucas Road.

Daughters have been born to: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doerfler, 27 McLean Street; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buck, Lawrenceville; Mr. and Mrs. James Casserly, 54 Cuyler Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brooks, Hopewell.

Three Fined. Traffic violations brought fines to three Princeton residents and six out-of-towners in Borough Court this week.

Magistrate Paul R. Chesebro fined Philip Taylor of R.D. No. 1, Route 27, $15 and revoked his driver's license for one month on a charge of careless driving.

Richard M. Brown, Princeton-Kingston Road, was fined $15 for speeding, while Henry R. Green, 147 Linden Lane, paid a fine of $10 for the same offense.

Red Cross Volunteers. Mrs. Thomas S. Mederos Jr., Chairman of the Princeton Red Cross' Volunteer Service Groups, has announced that applications for the New Nurse's Aide and Grey Lady Courses, which begin in the first week of October, will be accepted until September 20th. Those interested in obtaining information about the Fall courses are asked to call the local Red Cross Office (Princeton 1-2404).

Volunteers for the Nurse's Aide Service must be between 18 and 55, while Grey Lady Volunteers must be over 21. Graduates of both classes, upon the completion of their training, will work in the Fort Dix Hospital.

Hollister Joins ETS. The appointment of John S. Hollister as executive associate of Educational Testing Service was announced this week by Dr. Henry Chauncey, president of the testing organization. Mr. Hollister will assist in the development of new research projects and aid the president of the testing organization in corporate and industrial matters.

For the past six years, Mr. Hollister has been director of development and information for the Institute of International Education in New York. From 1946 to 1948 he was director of Quaker Relief in Germany. A resident of Newtown, Pa., Mr. Hollister is a trustee of the George School and of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation.

Openings at P. O. Examinations have been scheduled for the appointment of substitute clerks and substitute city carriers at the Princeton Post Office. Applications must be received no later than September 14.

The positions are open to persons living within the Princeton delivery area or employed at the post office. The starting salary is $1.61½ per hour. Further information may be obtained from the Civil Service information officer at the post office.

Miscellany. The former college and professional athlete, George T. Glisson, who reportedly stole more than $2,100 from the Princeton University campus over a three-year period, pulled one of the neatest jobs of his career in escaping from a Pennsylvania mental hospital by using a "borrowed" or "forgotten" key.

Glisson, confined to the Norristown State Hospital following his confession of robberies that netted some $25,000, neatly slipped past an attendant and opened two doors with a key. The Hospital Superintendent said that Glisson had also escaped from his institution in 1950 through the same two doors after stealing a key from a nurse. And it was noted that the "1950 key" had never been found.

Ricardo A. Mestres Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo A. Mestres, 96 Battle Road, is currently stationed aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Bordelon during gunnery training exercises for prospective Naval Reserve Officers. The ship is part of a squadron carrying more than 1,700 officers trainees on a midshipmen's cruise in European and Caribbean waters.

Captain Radcliffe R. Daly has announced that Flight A of the 9257th Air Reserve Center, which suspended its meetings during the summer months, will resume its normal training activities September 1st at 8:00 p.m. in the R.O.T.C. Armory, Washington Road.

Hun Staff Changes. Zigmund Emery has been named to succeed Victor S. Rizzi as director of athletics at the Hun School. Mr. Emery coached the baseball team this spring.

Robert R. Ball, a former governor of Kansas' Boys' State and honorary president of Boys' Nation in 1949, will succeed Mr. Rizzi as head coach of football. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Kansas in June, Mr. Ball will enter Princeton Theological Seminary this fall.

Named to assist Mr. Ball as line coach is Donn G. Jann of 74 Mercer Street, a senior at the Seminary. Mr. Jann was graduated from Whitworth College in 1951.

McCARTER THEATRE

Booking Agents Named. The New York firm of Bennett and Pleasant has been signed by the directors of the University's McCarter Theatre to oversee operations of the house and book pre-Broadway tryouts, road shows and the other productions for the theatre.

Mrs. Marguerite McAneny, whose appointment was carried here in June, will serve as resident manager for the McCarter. Mrs. McAneny has long been active on the local theatre scene, in Community Players; the University's theatre collection, and in many other posts.

Bennett and Pleasant, a theatre management and public relations firm, was founded in 1947 by Isadora Bennett and Richard Pleasant, who is a member of the Princeton Class of 1932. They were associated in founding the Ballet Theatre (which has had the longest continuity of any dance organization in American stage history—15 years) and have both been active in many theatrical ventures.

World's Largest Screen

The Somerville Drive-In, which claims the largest motion picture screen in the world, has opened up on Route 22. The screen is built for CinemaScope productions and is 140 feet wide.

The drive-in is scheduled to run year round and offers in-car heaters which will allow patrons to attend on cold evenings without having to run car motors or heaters. The modern-design theatre can accomodate 1,000 cars. Double-feature first-run programming is planned, including all first-run CinemaScope productions.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

In Review. After two extremely successful seasons of the University Players in the Murray, the feeling is definitely established among local theatre-goers (both regular and occasional) that the youthful group is welcome any summer for as long a season as it can manage.

Hence it is pleasant to report that the Players themselves are planning to make every effort possible to insure a return for the summer of 1955. Philip Minor, a leading member of the company both this year and last, reports that he hopes to organize a new group for next season.

From the start (which means the Jimmy Stewart-Henry Fonda-Margaret Sullavan group of 1928), the University Players have had to operate on a fortunate combination of personnel and circumstances for their sporadic but always successful troupes.

Charles Schultz, the man behind the company which has just concluded operations, will shortly enter the army, as will many others in the company which by now has scattered far and wide.

Mr. Minor will face considerable difficulties in assembling the new University Players, but the future is apparently secure on the financial side at least. The recently-completed season topped last year's fine box office records in satisfying fashion.

Varied Entertainment. The Players this year succeeded in attracting good-sized audiences which were justifiably confident that their evening of theatre would not be wasted. From start to finish, the productions were handsomely mounted, well-paced and brilliantly adapted to the limitations of the small Murrary stage.

Reviewing the comments from this corner, "Ghosts" was the only Players' offering which rated a panning for production reasons. But the Ibsen work was still a "must" for those interested in the idea of a theatre.

"Twelfth Night", Pirandello's "Right You Are", and the evening of one-acters by Evreinof, Shaw and Wilder had much to recommend them individually and as a part of a well-balanced summer of theatre.

"Camino Real", "Penny for a Song", "She Loves Me Not" and Mario Siletti's adaption of "Alice in Wonderland" were the high spots for this department, but a look at the entire list of productions gives rise to the feeling that

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

The two-week run of Leslie Stevens' new comedy, "The Champagne Complex" is now under way at the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope. The attraction will continue at the converted barn theatre through Saturday evening, September 4, with matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Frank Albertson, Patricia Smith and Elliott Reid are starred in the piece about a young magazine writer (Miss Smith) who upsets the romantic dope by going on a champagne binge. The three character comedy heads for a Broadway opening October 26 after further tryouts.

"Champagne Complex" will be the second work by the 32-year old Stevens to reach New York. His "Bullfight" was one of last season's theatrical highlights.

Marionettes Coming. "Hansel and Gretel" will be performed by the widely-noted Suzari Marionettes as the third in a series of children's productions at the Bucks Playhouse. Performances will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. next Friday, September 3.

More than 20 puppets are included in the adaption of the charming Humperdinck opera based on the children's tale. The Suzari Marionettes are now operating in their 14th year.

Six Productions Set

Pat Crawford, one of the leading members of the disbanded 1954 University Players' company, has been retained to direct the Princeton Community Players' first production of the season, "Summer and Smoke" by Tennessee Williams.

Rehearsals started this week for the drama, which will be offered the week of September 20-25 in Murray Theatre. Douglas Dougherty and Betty Frohling are cast in the leading roles of a young Southern doctor and a minister's daughter.

Five Community Players' productions will follow "Summer and Smoke". They will include "Murder in the Cathedral", "The Madwoman of Chaillot", an evening of one-acters, a premiere of an original play, and "The Taming of the Shrew". Further details will be carried here next week.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Valley of the Kings (Aug. 26-28) has chiefly locale photography in color to recommend it. The story wobbles through various badly-connected episodic scenes and the whole picture was probably bailed out at the box office by the recent archeological finds in Egypt. Eleanor Parker and Robert Taylor play diggers and their troubles include bad natives, crooks, etc.

Susan Slept Here (Aug. 29-31) is a slick comedy about the problems Dick Powell has in taking charge of Debbie Reynolds, who plays a 17-year-old delinquent of sorts. Obviously, he finally marries her. An amusingly produced little film, with Anne Francis, Alvy Moore and Glenda Farrell also featured.

Rear Window (Sept. 1-7, full week) has won itself a sack full of top reviews, pointing out that the masterful Alfred Hitchcock touch with suspense has triumphed once again. Jimmy Stewart, Grace Kelly, Thelma Ritter and Wendell Corey head an excellent cast. Stewart spies out a murder by witching a neighboring tenement through field glasses. He sees a lot else, too, in a picture with considerable comedy as well as drama and suspense. Technicolor.

MUSIC CIRCUS

"The Countess Maritza", the operetta by Emmerich Kalman, is currently playing at St. John Terrell's Music Circus in Lambertville. The offering continues through this Sunday evening.

The touring version of "Wish You Were Here" moves over to the Music Circus from the Grist Mill Playhouse for a week starting Tuesday.

Triple-Header Ahead. While all hands are concentrating on the championship play-offs in the three Eagle - sponsored leagues—American, National and Girls—the annual All-Star Triple-Header looms large on the horizon as the climactic event of Princeton's crowded summer-baseball season.

Starting at 1:30, Saturday, September 4th, on University Field, the three league champions, Nassau Social Club (National), Zandee's (Girls) and the Italian-American Sportsmen's Club (American), will oppose the all-star contingents in their respective leagues. Balloting for the various all-star combinations will be completed by this coming Sunday afternoon.

In the American League the Sportsmen and Teague's Stars have advanced to the play-off final and will meet in early September in a best-out-of-five series, probably starting Monday, September 6th. The former ousted Cousins, which had supplanted Gallup & Robinson in the play-off, and the Teague nine dropped the Eagles out of the running.

Softball Commissioner Michael C. Koplíner had good reason to extend his congratulations recently to all managers and players in the three leagues, for the 1954 campaign, according to the Eagles' president, Joseph E. Rauch, marks the first time that no protests whatsoever have been filed with the Commissioner.

Video Battle. College football, long the Nation's dominant fall sport, is battling for its life and the competition this Fall is coming from professional football, Canadian as well as American. While most American pro games are still scheduled for Sunday afternoons, with a sprinkling here and there on Saturday evenings, a number of the Canadian games will be aired on Saturday in direct conflict with televised college contests.

If it were not for television, there would be no open conflict. But television is here to stay and that's the rub. Canadian football, dominated by former American college stars, possess a tremendous potential appeal for football - minded spectators who prefer their fireside easy-chairs to wind - swept stadia and the wide-open Canadian game will be featured week after week on a national network.

In reviewing the 1954 television situation, one of the most astute of all sports observers, Len Elliott, sports editor of The Newark Evening News, takes a dim view of the colleges' efforts and asserts, "the colleges are standing still, or even losing ground."

Elliott feels that the colleges have done little or nothing "to make their game more attractive to the fans or to bolster confidence in it. At the moment the N.C.A.A. cannot even find a sponsor for its program of restricted weekly television. As smart an organization as General Motors decided it wasn't worthwhile."

The Newark editor goes on to state: "The pros meanwhile try constantly to make their game more exciting and hence more appealing. And they get a good press. All these things may be small signs but they still are signs. The point is pro football is on the rise. College football isn't. It's a situation that will bear some watching."

"No. 3" Out in Front. The rampaging team representing Mercer Engine Company No. 3 in the nine-entry County Firemen's League carried all before it and whipped Belle Mead, 6-0, in the championship finale. The victory not only gave the Princetonians the league title in their first summer of circuit competition but also avenged an early-season defeat suffered at Belle Mead's hands, the lone blemish on "No 3's" 1954 record.

In ringing up their triumph under the direction of player-coach "Bip" Davison, the members of "No. 3" made the most of the spectacular hurling of Huck McCreedy, who limited the opposition to two hits. George Sickel's home-run blast and Bill Mitchell's timely hitting were major factors in the offensive.

"No. 3" broke on top with a two-run cluster in the first inning, added two more markers in the second and scored twice again in the fifth. While McCreedy needed little assistance in the process of striking out eight men, he enjoyed excellent support afield, with both Jim Kopliner and Tim Harris contributing sparkling catches in the outfield.

The long-hitting Mountaineer, formerly a member of the West Virginia Legislature, bowed last weekend to San Francisco's Harvie Ward in the final of the Canadian Amateur Championship. The New Jersey Poll

3 OUT OF 4 ARE BETTER OFF, OR DOING AS WELL, AS THEY WERE IN 1953

A New Jersey Poll statewide survey just completed shows that a solid majority—3 out of every 4 of the New Jersey adult population—say they are as well off or better off than they were a year ago.

At the same time, about 1 in every 4 in the state say they are worse off.

In other words, those who say they are financially as well off or better off than they were a year ago outnumber by a margin of 3 to 1 those who say they are worse off today.

When New Jersey Poll staff reporters put the following question to a representative cross-section of the state's voters:

"Would you say that you and your family are better off or worse off financially than you were a year ago?"

These were the statewide results:

Worse off	24%
Better off	35
About the same	41

Highlight of today's survey is that in every population group examined, those who say they are as well off or better off than they were a year ago outmnumber by a margin of better than 2 to 1 those who say they are worse off.

This holds true for people in all city sizes, age groups, occupations, educational levels, and political parties.

Two other interesting findings emerge from today's survey.

One is that the larger the community, the greater the proportion saying that they are worse off than they were a year ago.

For example, only 15 in each 100 of all those living in communities with populations between 2,500 and 25,000 say they are worse off than they were a year ago; whereas just twice as many (31 in each 100) big city people—residents of Newark, Jersey City, Trenton, Elizabeth, Paterson, and Camden—say they are worse off financially today than they were a year ago.

Sentiment by size of community:

	100,000 & Over	2,500-24,999	Rural Areas
Worse off	31%	15%	19%
Better off	35	40	39
About same	34	45	42

The other is that somewhat more New Jersey manual workers than white-collar workers say they are worse off financially today than they were a year ago.

The vote by occupational groups:

	Manual Workers	White-Collar Workers
Worse off	28%	16%
Better off	32	40
About same	40	44

GRIST MILL PLAYHOUSE

"Wish You Were Here", the Arthur Kober-Joshua Logan-Harold Rome musical hit of the past two Broadway seasons is completing a week at the Grist Mill Playhouse upstate on Route 206, near Andover. Jo Wilder, Joe Sargent, Faith Dane and Sonny Sparks head a New York company now touring in the musical.

Hollywooder John Carradine has flown East to make his only summer theatre appearance of the season, as Jeeter Lester in the famous "Tobacco Road", holder of the American long-run record.

"Tobacco Road" will open Monday and play nightly through Sunday, September 5. The Labor Day weekend occounts for the extra playing date, a departure from customery practice at the Grist Mill. There will be a matinee on Wednesday, September 1, at 2:30.

"Tobacco Road" was adapted into a comedy form by Nunally Johnson from the Erskine Caldwell novel. Mr. Carradine has played the part of Jeeter throughout the Midwest, but next week will mark his first appearance in the East in the role. A cast selected from New York will be in support.

SOME FACTS ABOUT LAWNS
• To repair the soil, you should fertilize and plant lawn seed now for best fall growth.
• Scott's lawn seed contains approximately 3,000,000 seeds per pound, while normal cheap seed mixtures contain approximately 1,000,000—only a third as many.

• Agrico fertilizer requires three pounds per 100 square feet, while Scott's Turfbuilder will cover the same area with only one pound.
• You can really economize by the accurate measuring of a Scott's Lawnspreader, following the scale settings for the product used.

September 4th and 5th for the National Motorcycle Championships. Amateurs and Novices will ride on the 4th, with the 100-mile championship grind scheduled for the following afternoon on the circular mile track.

The country's "Tennis Fathers", sponsoring the Men's and Women's National Tennis Championships at Forest Hills (Saturday, August 28th, through September 6th), have come up with a new bargain package—a five-year series ticket for $75.00. The purchaser of a five-year ticket, according to the announcement, is assigned the same seat or seats each year, in the choicest location, and at a substantial saving!

Power Football. On the threshold of Princeton's 86th year of college football, with 56 aspirants heading for the Tigers' Blairstown training quarters on Wednesday, September 1st, a Penn State economics professor has come up with a batch of statistics which show that the Sons of Nassau should be rated third in the East for the eight-season span, 1946 through 1953.

Professor Roger B. Saylor, whose system of evaluation lists any number of imponderables, including the calibre of opposition, states that "by almost any conceivable standard Army was the best in the East during the period" and merits a power-rating of 468, compared with second-place Pennsylvania's 448 and Princeton's 440.

In Dr. Saylor's calculations, that are now used as official standings in the Western Pennsylvania High School Conference and certain sections of New Jersey, Cornell trails Princeton in the rankings with 430. Penn State is fifth (426), followed by Villanova (418), Yale (411), Columbia (405), Navy (399) and Dartmouth (399).

For the record, and for the sake of comparisons at the start of still another football season, here is how the "Saylor System" rates the eight-team Ivy Group on the basis of its members' achievements in recent years—and, not on the basis of what might lie ahead for any one of them:

	Saylor Rating	8-Yr. Record W	L	T
Pennsylvania	448	40	24	4
Princeton	440	49	20	0

Incidentally, Dr. Saylor's intriguing charts also show that the eight members of the Ivy Group have more than held their own with the so-called Eastern "independents" in the past eight years. There have been 93 games played between the Ivy League schools and the 11 major Eastern "independents" (not including Army and Navy) since 1946. Six ended in ties. Of the 87 played to a decision, the Ivies won 58, or exactly two-thirds.

Seven of the eight Ivy schools have compiled better won-lost records against the "independents" than against their fellow Ivy Leaguers. The surprise exception is Pennsylvania, the Ivy leader by all standards. But the Quakers have played only three games against independents, and all with a traditional nemesis, Penn State.

Professor Saylor places Army and Navy in a special class because in the past eight seasons the Service Academies have played 41 contests with Ivy League teams as compared with only 11 against the "independents." The combined Army-Navy record in Ivy League competition shows 30 triumphs, 17 losses and four ties.

"Smith of Princeton"

Homer Smith, captain-fullback of Princeton's 1953 varsity eleven, has at last reports gained a halfback's berth with the Chicago Cardinals and has been assigned a jersey-number familiar to all Orange and Black gridiron enthusiasts—No. 42, the numerals worn here for three banner seasons by one Richard W. Kazmaier.

Smith recently saw action in Chattanooga, Tenn., in an exhibition battle involving the Cardinals and their cross-Chicago rivals, the Bears. A two-column picture in the Chattanooga News-Free Press featured a two-column "shot" of Smith autographing a program for two high school drum majorettes.

The paragraph below the picture, after identifying the principals, noted: "Just to prove that the pros aren't 'toughies' from the wrong side of the tracks, Smith is a Princeton man."

RENT A TRUCK FROM HERTZ

WITH EVERYTHING FURNISHED — BUT THE DRIVER

Hertz, the world's largest truck rental organization, gives you the world's finest service 'round the clock. Call any time, and rent the right truck for your needs.

When you rent a truck for personal use, you need only your driver's license.

Choose a ½, 1½ or 2-ton truck with van, panel or stake body. All gasoline, oil, Public Liability, Property Damage, Fire and Theft Insurance, and $100.00 deductible collision protection are included in the low rate—at no extra cost.

LOW RATES:

Hourly rate for 12 foot van type truck with gasoline, oil and proper insurance furnished is only $1.50 per hour plus 10c a mile—thus, a round trip of 10 miles requiring three hours is only $5.50—rates lower by the day and week.

Look What I Found!

A nice little 5-rm. bungalow, pre-war — and is this house built! Plaster walls, hardwood floors, 2 or 3 bedrm., mod. bath with shower, large basement with garage next to furnace rm. — what a blessing on a cold morning. Excellent view, approx. ½ acre, shade trees. Must settle estate, $12,000

Also, a little larger place, 3 bed rm. house, 2-car garage. Nicely landscaped, fruit trees, over 2 acres. Near new consolidated School. I think you will like this place for $16,000.

VIVA TREATMENT

$9.00 Package value for only $5.00 Limited time only!

The Viva Treatment is your introduction to a smoother, finer textured skin. Viva is ideal for every skin, dry and even sensitive skin. In just 30 minutes Viva gives your skin new life... tiny lines and that tired feeling seem to melt away.

And Formula A.B.C. comforts irritated skin, helps rebalance the "acid-bacteria" condition.

When you come in ask about the exciting new Viva Club.
